

goodness of his heart, and the instruction he has imparted to them. For nearly forty-two years he was a professor in this country.

Leonard Huber was born November 6, 1819, in Bavaria. After completing a full course in the Gymnasium, embracing the ancient and modern languages, he entered the University of Munich, and devoted seven years more to the study of philosophy, philology and law. After practicing law for a year, he again entered the university to study the oriental languages under the eminent orientalist, Prof. Doellinger. He spent fifteen years in college and university, and in 1854 emigrated to the United States, and for forty years he taught Latin, Greek, German, Italian, French and Anglo-Saxon in various academies, colleges and universities. His ripe scholarship, especially in languages, and particularly in Greek, induced many eminent scholars to consult him on different points. At the death of his wife, two years ago, he gave up teaching to devote his remaining years to the completion of his "Notes on the New Testament," being critical, philological and exegetical. He completed his work last year, and while at work on his last pages he became an invalid. He was a man of scrupulous honesty and was liberal in thought, having a deep and abiding faith in humanity. All men to him were good. Three sons, John H., P. L., and B. S. Huber survive him.

MARSHALL.—Nashel Marshall died July 24, 1898, aged 69 years, 3 months and 2 days. The subject of this notice was a consistent member of the Brethren church.

E. B. SHAVER.

 We will mail THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL, beginning with the October number, to January 1, 1899, also THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, every week, from the time subscription is received to January 1, 1899, on receipt of only Twenty-five Cents.

In The Ladies' Home Journal

Mrs. Rorer, who writes exclusively for THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL, will continue her cooking and domestic lessons. In the October number she tells what should, and what should not, be eaten by men following certain occupations. Twenty-five desserts are given for all sorts of stomachs.

SOME SPECIAL FEATURES include churches decorated for Christmas, Easter, Fairs and Weddings, photographed and described.

Interiors of tasteful and inexpensive homes pictured and described, showing pretty corners, tables set for dinners, luncheons and teas, etc.

Some Special Features of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

Besides the General Departments—Serials, Short Stories and Sketches—

Men and Women of the Hour

Brief biographic sketches and characteristic stories of people prominently before the public, with portrait illustrations.

The Post's Series of Practical Sermons

Each week is given a strong sermon, simple, direct and unsectarian, on vital topics, by one of the best religious thinkers of the world.

The Best Poems of the World

Beautifully illustrated by the best American artists, are accompanied by a portrait of the poet, a biographic sketch and the interesting story of how each poem was written.

THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA